LIGHTNING RODS,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.
THE ANNUAL destruction of life and property by thunder storms has for years past given increased interest to the subject of Lightning Rods, and it is important that citizens should avail themselves of this means of protection for life and property.
The value and efficacy of the Lightning Rod does not consist wholly in conducting the Electric bolt from the building after it has leapt from the cloud, although this alone is sufficient to commend it to general use. Its chief value and efficacy consists in its power to prevent such explosions. It operates silently by tapping or drawing off the electric fluid from the advancing thunder cloud and thus by causing it to rise as it rolls past averting the danger. It is essential that the laws which regulate the action of the electric fluid should be duly considered, both in their construction and erection. The Rods I propose to furnish are constructed on true scientific principles. By means of screws connecting the parts together in a brass nut they are rendered as perfect as wire, and never by accident become insulated, as when they are united by hooks.
Their diameter is sufficient to conduct the greatest thunderbolt without fusion. The supports of the rod being furnished with glass insulators, all discharge of the electric fluid laterally into the house or anywhere except the earth is prevented.
It is important in order to reap the full benefit of the Lightning Rod, that they should be erected so as to distribute their points on the top of the building to be protected with due reference to the sphere of their attractive and protective power, which is generally estimated should be horizontally the distance of twice their hight.
Possessing, therefore, all the essential requisites of a truly scientific and safe conducting rod if erected so as to present a sufficient number of points, according to the extent of the building and if properly planted in the earth so as to be in no danger of becoming insulated by drought or dryness of the earth, I feel confident that my rods as well for their cheapness as their excellence, deserve and will receive general patronage.
☞ Orders left with G. W. MYGATT, Architect, Martin's Block, will be promptly attended to.
☞ My Points are entirely different from any heretofore used and the purchaser can have them tested whenever he chooses to do so. mar29-d6m

TO MOTHERS, WIVES AND DAUGHTERS.
The noblest discovery in the science of medicine, and the one which has, and will continue to prove, the greatest blessing to the human family, is the medicinal preparation known as Marshall's Uterine Catholicon. Not only of years, but for centuries, the medical profession has exhausted every endeavor to discover a cure for those diseases which afflict five-sixths of the females in this country. From the first appearance of the menses until their cessation at that period known as the turn of life, every woman is more or less afflicted with diseases for which no cure could be found in the whole list of medical agents. Suppression of the menses, their non-appearance, great pain during the flow, the whites, falling of the womb, disarrangement of the system during pregnancy, and a hundred other evils following in their train, have almost made life a burden and turned existence into a daily and hourly curse The most enlightened professors of the medical colleges in the old world, as well as in this country, have held the subject in anxious consideration, and they have finally determined that the old method of treating these as local and separate diseases was all wrong, and that a constitutional treatment was what was required.
Marshall's Uterine Catholicon,
Has become so widely popular, that unscrupulous and ignorant persons have attempted to counterfeit the article, and, in some cases they use a name resembling that of Marshall at the first glance.

CHANGE OF TERMS.

From this date (May 2,) the price of our Daily will be FIVE DOLLARS. We began in September, '51 with a five column paper at FOUR dollars a year. We enlarged it the next June to a six column paper, and have kept constantly increasing the quantity of reading matter, until our paper now bears a fair comparison, in that respect, with our six dollar cotemporaries.

Four dollars a year do not pay the first cost of the white paper, press-work, delivery, &c., without charging any thing for the composition. None who believe in our motto, "The laborer is worthy of his hire," will object to this change. It is just to all parties.

FOR SALE.---The Bourgeois Type on which this paper is printed--a font of some 480 lbs.--nearly new --having been used about 8 months--will be sold for 25 cents per lb. cash on delivery. The Racine Democrat on Slavery.

The Racine Democrat copies most of our article in regard to its comments on the condition of the seamstresses of England, and says it does not "wish to apologize for or justify Slavery as it exists in this country." From this we are to understand that it denies publishing that article as a partial justification of Slavery. Then why did it call the special attention of Free Soilers to it? What was its motive for so doing? and is the Editor of the Democrat so thick-skulled as not to know that no other deduction could be drawn from such language than the one we made?

The Democrat says it only wishes "to show up to the light the hypocrisy of the so-called English philanthropists who will allow WHITE SLAVERY to exist in their country almost without a murmur, and yet make a great outcry against the negro slavery of the United States."

If the Democrat knows anything of the present history of the English people, it must know that the class in that country who have interested themselves in behalf of the enslaved in this country, have labored—and many of them zealously, too—for the amelioration of the condition of the suffering laborers of their own country. Nor have they been backward in exposing the gross injustice to which their poorer classes are subjected, but have frankly admitted that misery, wo and oppression existed among their own race to a sorrowful extent. And when accused of this by Americans, they have not flared up with an air of offended dignity and told us to look to our enslaved masses at home and mind our own business, as Northern dough-faces have replied to them in similar cases. The Democrat, to be consistent, of course, is opposed to aiding the Foreign Missionary cause so long as we have Three Million of people in our midst as benighted as those of any country on God's green earth. It may be urged that our laws will not allow us to christianize our 3,000,000 of heathen; but are there not laws in England which oppress the poor grievously and which will absolutely prevent their condition being very materially improved, until they are repealed?

The Democrat's plea that the South were once taking measures to rid themselves of Slavery, and would have done so, had not Northern Abolitionists interfered and attempted to aid them in the good work, is so utterly absurd, that an attempt to disprove it seems uncalled for. This ground was assumed by apologists for Slavery years ago, and successfully exploded, and we did not dream that any one was shallow enough at this enlightened day of the age to earnestly advance such a flimsy argument—so false in reason. If the Southerners sincerely desired to abolish Slavery from pure motives, is it reasonable to suppose that they would be deterred from doing it because a few Northern men proffered their aid in the work, or were even officious in the matter? If they were, it shows plainly they were not moved by any generous impulse, or actuated by any philanthropic motive towards the slave.

KENOSHA AND ROCK RIVER RAILROAD CO.—This Company have advertised to receive proposals for the grading, masonry, ties, &c., of the entire length of the road, to its intersection with the Rock River Valley Road.

REPORT
Of the Trial of the Impeachment of Judge Hubbell.

Court for the Trial of Impeachments.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN vs. LEVI HUBBELL, Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, } Impeached of corrupt conduct in office and for crimes and misdemeanors.

Reported for the Free Democrat.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY.

MADISON, Thursday, June 30, '53.

The Court was opened at ten minutes after 9, and the journal read and approved.—After calling the roll and notifying the absentees, the Senators were reported all present.

The managers were announced, the Respondent and his counsel being present.

JOHN CRAWFORD called and sworn, was examined to specification 9, Art. 11:

Reside in Wauwatosa, Mil. co.; recollect the case of Treadwell vs. Richards, though I have not a perfect recollection of the names of the parties; think Ellethorpe's goods were concerned in it; was a juror on one trial of it; the jury did not agree; think it was given to the jury on Saturday evening; it was in the evening at any rate; the court adjourned after the case was given to us; it instructed the officer, as I understood, to ring the bell if we agreed, to "alarm" him or "inform" him we had agreed; we were left in the Court room; the bell rang; think by the direction of the officer; think it rang about the time I began to feel sleepy; think it was a little before the middle of the night; the jury had not agreed; the Judge appeared in the Court House soon after the bell rang; he came into the room where the jury were; think when he first entered he said something to some of the jury about the case; don't know what; after a while he asked me if the jury had agreed; he had some little talk with them; don't know what; when he came in we were not trying to concentrate our views; as I was in considerable of a fever; said we had rung the bell so as to call out the fire companies and alarmed the whole city; afterwards he addressed himself to me and asked if I thought the jury could agree; told him I thought there was little prospect of their agreeing; knew there was no prosp't of my yielding the point I stuck out on; and I did not see much of getting the rest off the right track; think I was not lying down; always think that is improving on the rest of the jury; I never lie down until I have been out three or four nights; saw nothing improper in the action of the Judge; he was talking with the others but I did not hear what he said; did not ask us how we stood; all he did to my knowledge was to find out what was the prospect of our agreeing; after he found out there was none he discharged us, and we left

Cross-examined:

Should think the Judge was not in more than ten or 15 minutes before the jury was discharged; there was no one else in but he and the jury unless it was the officer; could not tell whether the officer was inside or outside when the Judge was there; did not hear any body trying to get in during the time; did not meet Mr. McArthur and Mr. James at the door; did not see them there at all; there were not eleven obstinate men on the jury; think the jury were nearly divided; think they stood 7 to 5, and perhaps I was on the weakest side; if any told you they stood 11 to 1 they told you wrong, and have got me to contend with. [Mr. Ryan said he should be sorry for them in that case.) Yes! I shouldn't wonder if they would find considerable of a snag!

CHAUNCEY ABBOTT called and sworn, was examined to specifications 3 and 9, Art. 7:

Reside in Madison; know Wm. W. Wyman; was not personally acquainted with Eliza C. Wyman, his former wife; recollect there was a proceeding for divorce; think it was in Milwaukee Co.; was Att'y for W. W. Wyman; did not know of any collusion between Wyman and his wife in obtaining the divorce, either with the knowledge of the Judge or without it; I appeared at the taking of the testimony; am not sure whether I entered an appearance, but I went at Wyman's request to go and see what the testimony was and tell him; think he may have told me not to examine the witnesses, unless they offered something that was to disgrace him; had an arrangement with Collins about the alimony; think it was mentioned once in the Court House here and the Judge said $100 seemed small, but if the parties agreed to it, he was satisfied.

Knew of no collusion between the parties in that case, or between the Judge and the parties; if I have stated in Madison that there was collusion, I meant to have it understood that there were reports to that effect; think I was instructed not to examine witnesses, but to report to Wyman what the testimony was; think the petition set up desertion and cruel conduct as grounds of divorce; think he said if they gave no evidence of other things that would disgrace him not to oppose it; understood he was willing she should have the divorce if it could be done without disgracing him; by saying I knew of no collusion I meant I had not heard Mrs. Wyman say any thing about it, nor had heard the Judge say anything about it; he gave me no instructions to resist the decree when I told him what the evidence was; did not instruct me to resist it in any contingency unless the evidence was calculated to disgrace him; dont know as I have always recollected where the suit was; was asked by Mr. Wyman the other day and told him my impression was it was in Milwaukee; can't say whether the conversation in the Court House here about alimony was before or after the decree; think I had a conversation about the alimony before the taking of the evidence; it was a subject of negotiation between myself and Collins, during the progress of the suit; conversed also with Atwood about it.

Direct resumed:

When Mrs. Wyman first filed her petition, Wyman was indignant about it; he told me afterwards not to oppose the decree unless the evidence was calculated to disgrace him; did not learn from him that he ever had any conversation with Mrs. Wyman about it.

JAS. H. PAINE called and sworn, was examined to Specification 3, Art. 4:

Reside in Milwaukee; am a lawyer; have had a practice in the Circuit Court there some five years; have had a number of cases of divorce in Judge H.'s Court; dont recollect that he ever decided one for me that was litigated; after the testimony was taken and proof of publication was before the Court, he has frequently taken the papers to his room and signed the decree there at Chambers; the cases in which he has done so for me, were all in term time and none in vacation; the business in the Court has been crowded with jury trials and these Chancery cases have been so disposed of to save time for jury trials; it is known to the bar that there has not been time for the Court to dispose of all the business in Court; he has also frequently heard Chancery cases argued at his office and at the offices of lawyers; usually in my cases I have drawn blank decrees, and have sometimes found them altered by the Judge.

GEO. H. WALKER called and sworn, was examined to specification 1, Art. 2:

Reside in Milwaukee; was Mayor of the City in January, February and March, 1852. There was in February no fixed value to the city orders; they were disposed of at different prices according to the necessities of the holders; the special orders would sell at from 50 to 60 cts. on the dollar; have known the general orders to sell as low as 60 cts.; the credit of the city was rather low at that time.

When the new Charter went into operation and the debt was funded, there was a rise in the price of the orders; when they were funded into bonds, they went up to par; the general City bonds were a little below par; the bonds to the Mil. & M. R. R. Co. were at par; the city failed to pay interest on some of its bonds and Col. Crocker censured me some for allowing the interest to go unpaid; I could not have helped it without raising the money my self.

Cross-examined:

Presume that considerable money was made dealing in orders, about that time; should think that about Feb. '52, general orders could have been purchased as low as 60 cts; City orders were generally the best before tax paying time, because there was more demand for them; could not say that I ever knew a person who purchased the orders to sell them as low as 60 cents; the general city orders were receivable for the general city taxes for the full am't I think; I bought orders to pay my taxes and paid such as they were receivable for; the treasurer always gave us a tax list and one column was headed "general city tax;" that tax was payable in general city orders; those orders had on the face a statement that they were receivable for all general city taxes.

Direct resumed:

The city was at that time largely in debt and there were orders outstanding to a large amount, beyond what could be absorbed by the payment of taxes; there were about $140,000 out; I employed a man to do some work in filling at 18 cents cash a yard, and the city had some similar work done right by the side of it, and paid 35 cents in orders.

Cross-ex. resumed:

Mr. Ryan asked what was the city debt now?

Mr. Walker said if it was not material to the case he did not wish to answer. But he explained that the credit of the city is now good, thought it has liabilities out for a much larger amount than at that time.

WM. S. HAWKINS called and sworn; was examined to specification 4, Art. 7:

Reside in Waukesha; am a lawyer; recollect the suit of Barker vs. Geo. C. Pratt; was counsel for Pratt, and Downer was counsel for Barker; Mr. Arnold was with me; judgment was rendered at the March term, '52; I think it was an action on a judgment in Vermont; recollect we resisted it on the ground of fraud or mistake apparent on the records; there appeared to be a deficiency in the transcript filed by Downer; the deft's transcript was fuller, so that there was a doubt about which was correct; think the Judge remarked that there was a doubt about it but not sufficient to reject the paper; think he remarked that he should enter a judgment for the purposes of securing the claim; there was a stay of execution and the reason of granting that was that it was represented to the Judge that a proceeding for a new trial in Vermont, had been commenced.

(The witness here explained the nature of the action in Vermont showing that it appeared to have been an action under a peculiar Statute in which the accounts of the parties were in litigation, and that Pratt having come away, Barker took in an account which he claimed was Pratt's, and got the judgment on the balance.)

The Judge said if that was the case he should enter a judgment to secure the claim of Mr. Barker and stay the execution till the matter could be tried in Vermont. The next term Downer moved for execution, and I presented affidavits from Vermont, showing that proceedings had been commenced there and the Judge refused to issue execution. I know a suit was commenced in the U. States' Court on it; but dont know that it was tied up there in the same way as it was by Judge Hubbell.

Think the judgment was rendered and execution stayed at the same term; my impression is that they were both done on the same day; think Mr. Downer was present, because I recollect the remarks he made about the order staying execution; think at the time the order was made, that statements were made by counsel and letters produced, showing that proceedings were about to be, or had been, commenced in Vermont for a new trial. Downer did not admit those facts—did not deny them—found fault with the order.

Direct resumed.

The fact was, that the Judge expressed a doubt about the matter on the face of the transcripts, and then, when these statements about the matter in Vermont were made, he said he would stay execution until it could be settled there.

WM. S. HASCALL called and sworn; was examined to the same matter.

Until Jan'y last was Clerk of Waukesha Co. for 3 or 4 years previous; recollect the case of Barker vs. Pratt;—recollect the judgment; there was some controversy about the transcripts, and the Judge told Mr. Downer there was some question about it, but he would give him a judgment so he would have a lien on Pratt's estate, but would stay execution so as to give the defendant reasonable time to have the matter reviewed in Vermont. At the subsequent term of the Court, Downer applied to have the order staying execution set aside. The defendant offered affidavits showing that they had been taking steps to commence in Vermont, and the Judge overruled the motion. The affidavit, I think, showed that Pratt's counsel in Vt. had been somewhat negligent about commencing, but that Pratt had done all he could.

Think there was something wrong on the face of the plaintiff's transcript; don't recollect as there was any other conflict between the two, except one was fuller than the other; the Judge told Downer he should stay execution at the time he entered the judgment, but I think it was not stayed until two or three days after. Downer went home and came back in a few days, and I told him the order had been entered. The most I recollect about the proceedings in Vermont, was at the fall term, when the motion to vacate was up; think some statements were made about it at the other term; cannot tell whether they were made at the time of rendering the judgment or at the time of entering the order.

Direct resumed.

The transcript of the defendant contained all the accounts between the parties; you contended that it showed a fraud or mistake.

N. J. EMMONS called and sworn; was examined to Article 1.

Reside in Milwaukee; am an att'y-at-law; recollect suit of Perry vs. Comstock et al.; was counsel for pl'ff; took part in the trial before the Judge; it was an action of assumpsit; commenced by attachment under statute authorizing attachments against part of the defendants and ordinary summons against others; it was to recover about $21,000 for advances made by Perry & Co. to the firm of Sanderson & Co, also for drafts drawn by the latter on the former; it was for a balance—the whole amount of dealings between the firms was over $200,000. The issue was on a traverse of the affidavit on which the attachment was issued; the affidavit alleged that the Comstocks had fraudulently disposed of their property to defraud their creditors, and stated the particular fact—that Sanderson had been a member of the firm and sold out to the Comstocks, and they assigned for the benefit of certain creditors, leaving out Perry & Co.

(It was here concluded to read the affidavit itself, to show what it alleged. The traverse by the Comstocks was also read, in which they denied that they had conveyed or assigned their property to defraud creditors.)

It was proved on the trial of the traverse that the conveyances to Geo. Comstock were made at the time alleged in the affidavit; also that a large amount of city property and land in Outagamie was conveyed—the consideration was $10,000; the ground of the pl'ff was that it was much less than the value of the property; there was much testimony on the point; the pl'ff's witnesses made it much over $10,000, the defendant's witnesses made it about $10,000, judging by what it would bring in cash at forced sale. The pl'ff had a number of witnesses to the point, and we claimed that it was evidence of fraud; we also claimed that the assignment and conveyance, being both executed at one time, were evidence of a fraudulent preference; there was also a conveyance to one of the Comstocks, which was wholly unexplained as to whether it was for a debt or for cash, and we claimed that as evidence of fraud; we urged that they had appropriated the assets of Sanderson & Co. to the payment of their individual debts, and not to the creditors of Sanderson & Co. There was no proof of indebtedness to Geo. G. Comstock, and we claimed that as evidence of fraud; also claimed that if there was a debt the value of the property was much greater than the debt, and showed fraud. It was claimed also that part of the liabilities to be paid by the assignment were those on which the father was liable, so that the whole estate was to be swept away by the family—by the father and brother. Another point was that the schedules attached to the assignment were not recorded, and we tried to get hold of the assignment, but they were unwilling to produce it. The Judge finally remarked that their unwillingness was a strong fact against them. It was claimed by us that Cicero Comstock had himself estimated the real estate to be worth far more than he sold it for to his brother; also, that just before the assignment he represented in New-York that he was doing as well as ever, and was worth $39,000. We claimed this as evidence of fraud.

Mr. Arnold asked if the witness considered the fraud more strongly made out than in almost any other case he had ever seen.

Mr. Ryan objected, and the question was withdrawn.

Mr. Arnold then showed the witness the minute-book of Judge H., which he swore to be in the Judge's hand-writing, and that it was the regular habit of the Judge to keep full minutes of the evidence in cases tried before him.

He then continued:

The case consumed about 6 days, the decision was 2 or 3 weeks afterwards; know it was a very busy term, and a good deal of fault was found by the Bar because we took up a case to be tried by the Court when there were a great many jury trials waiting. Know that Judge H. took minutes of the testimony during the trial of the case.

Have already stated the principal proof given by the defendants; it was chiefly as to the value of the property; they offered some papers to prove the existence of a debt to G. C. Comstock, but on objection they were withdrawn; they took ground against us; did not submit to a decision against them, but resisted it; claimed that the Court could not consider the assignment and conveyances as one transaction, though of same date; claimed also that we had not proved the property to be of more value than they sold it for.

The argument was commenced by me in the afternoon, and I finished that evening; it was concluded the next day; it was argued by Brown and Randall for the defendants. The positions I took there for the plaintiff were not suggested to me by Judge H.; don't recollect whether the position that the conveyance was a diversion of the property from the creditors of the firm, was suggested by me or by Mr. Arnold.

The Court here adjourned until 3 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Court was opened at five mintes after three, the roll called, absentees notified and reported in attendance.

The cross-examination of Mr. Emmons was resumed:

Judge H. spoke to me on the fact of the assignment from Sanderson and the diversion from the creditors of Sanderson & Co.; he spoke to me about it during the trial, going down town; asked me why we did not prove the transfer from Sanderson to the Comstocks, and the amount and character of the property; think he remarked we had better prove it; think I told him we did intend to prove it; he regarded it as essential to be proved; that may have been his language; may have got the inference from what he said; it was during the progress of the trial; think we had given no evidence on the point previous to that conversation.

Mr. Ryan asked if, at the comencement of the suit, there was any difference of opinion among the counsel as to the propriety of commencing against part of the defendants by attachments, and the rest by ordinary summons?

Mr. Arnold asked to what that was cross-examination.

Mr. Ryan said he thought it was cross-examination.

Mr. Arnold objected, but afterwards withdrew it, and the witness answered:

The facts were just these—the manner of commencing the suit was discussed by Mr. Arnold and myself, but we finally agreed to commence it just as we did. Wm. Sanderson retained me in the suit; know by hearsay that he came to Madison shortly after the suit was commenced.

Mr. Ryan asked if he knew for what purpose Sanderson came to Madison, and what the purpose was?

Mr. Knowlton asked if that was intended to impeach their witness (Sanderson) or sustain him?

Mr. Ryan said, "To sustain him!"

Mr. Arnold objected, on the ground that it was not cross-examination to anything he had inquired about. Also, for the reason that Sanderson was the witness of the prosecution, and was cross-examined by the counsel for the prosecution; they asked him whether he came to Madison, and for what, and he answered. If they now asked this witness the same things, it must be either to contradict Sanderson, and that they could not do; or it must be to add to what Sanderson said, and that they cannot do.

Mr. Ryan said he admitted that his examination of Sanderson partook of the character of a cross-examination; but he asserted what every lawyer knew, that when a witness was so unwilling as Sanderson was, the party who called him had a right so to examine him.

He denied that in cross-examination he was bound to follow in the same trail as they took on the direct; but that he had a right to ask any question that would go to give a different color to the evidence given on the direct examination.

The defense had called this witness and examined him about the case, but what their object was they had not stated.

Mr. Arnold said that the object was to show that the decision of the Judge was proper.

Mr. Ryan said that he sought then, by cross-examination, to show that it was improper; and he urged briefly that he had a right to ask the question.

The question was put on the admissibility of the evidence and it was excluded, all voting in the negative.

Was present at the decision of the case; the decision was delivered; the point that the property was conveyed by Sanderson to the Comstocks, they assuming to pay the debts, and that the Comstocks then divested it from the creditors of Sanderson & Co., I think was noticed in the decision, and my impression is that it was sustained; recollect that after the opinion, Mr. Randall asked, "supposing he had paid the debt in cash, then what?" Judge H. said, then there would have been no inference of fraud; said there would have been none if he had paid it in wheat—that had a fixed market value; but to pay a debt in real estate that was fluctuating in value, that was evidence of fraud; have attempted to settle bills of exceptions on the Judge's book of minutes; recollect the case of Dow vs myself.

Mr. Ryan asked if he had difficulty in getting a correct bill of exceptions in the case.

Mr. Arnold objected.

Judge H. said they might ask it.

Mr. Arnold said at the instance of Respondent, he neglected to object to much testimony that was illegal. But he believed he should insist on this objection, because the trial was reported and he did not like to have it go forth and appear that illegal testimony was admitted without objection.

The vote was taken and the evidence rejected as follows:

Direct resumed.

It was argued that the conveyance at a definite price, took the property away from the public market, and thereby prevented an opportunity for a sale that might have brought enough to pay them, and left a surplus. I have examined the Judge's minutes of the evidence in that case; they are very full and correct.

Mr. Arnold then offered to have the witness take the book and read the points made by the lawyers on both sides as put down by the Judge, and say whether they were correct.

Mr. Ryan objected and the question was not pressed.

Mr. Arnold then asked whether the witness had filed a bill as solicitor for one Erasmus Corning, a judgment creditor of Taylor, against Judge H., Taylor and Blossom, alleging that the transfer of the judgment by Taylor to Hubbell and Blossom was fraudulent, and seeking to recover of them the am't of it.

Mr. Ryan objected, and said he could see no possible bearing that it had on the case.

Mr. Arnold said the object was to impeach Taylor's testimony.

Mr. Ryan said he did not see how proceedings by Mr. Taylor's creditors could effect his testimony in this case.

The question was withdrawn.

I gave the letters from Judge H. to Taylor spoken of by Taylor in his evidence, to him, and heard that he produced them before the committee last winter.

(In answer to a Senator:)

On the trial of the Comstock and Perry case it appeared that the conveyance of real estate to Geo. Comstock was made while he was absent; we proved by a clerk of the Comstocks that the deeds were made out before the arrival of Theodore and Geo. Comstock at Milwaukee; there was some testimony offered by the defendants to explain the fact of the execution of the papers before the arrival of Geo. and Cicero Comstock; think the explanation extended only to the assignment, and not to the making of the deeds.

The defense then offered Judge H.'s books of minutes in evidence. Mr. Arnold stated that the prosecution had proved, as he supposed with an object, that some time elapsed between the trial and decision in the case.—They offered the books to show the number of cases with which the Court was occupied during that time, and that it was crowded with business.

Mr. Ryan objected.

Judge H. said, being on trial, and charged with a corrupt motive, he desired to introduce the books to show that he had a sufficient reason for deferring the decision of the Sanderson case. He wished to put himself right before the Court.

Mr. Emmons stated in reply to Mr. Knowlton, that the Court sat all day on the last day of the trial of the traverse without adjourning for dinner, and sitting until late in the evening:

Judge Dunn asked if it was conceded that they were books of record.

Mr. Ryan said they were nothing but the minutes of the Judge.

Senator Alban asked if there was not a rule requiring the Judge to keep such a book of minutes, and if that would not make them records.

Mr. Arnold said they did not offer them as records, but only as minutes of the Judge.

The vote was taken and the books were rejected, all voting in the negative except Alban, Bovee and Wakely.

H. D. BARRON called and sworn; was examined to Spec. 10, Art. 21.

Reside in Waukesha; am acquainted with Judge H.; also with Cook, the former Dist. Att'y of that county; recollect the case of the State vs. Jebiel Smith indicted for adultery; before the trial, had a conversation with Cook in regard to it.

Mr. Arnold asked what Cook said in the conversation about his intention to enter a nolle prosequi.

Mr. Ryan objected on the ground that Cook was not examined as to the conversation when he was on the stand.

There was some question on this point and Mr. Arnold said he would pass it.

Am acquainted with Wm. K. Wilson.

Mr. Arnold asked if he had ever had any conversation with Wilson as to his motives for preferring the charges.

Mr. Ryan objected on the ground that the Assembly prosecuted these charges, and not Mr. Wilson; and even if Wilson was the prosecutor, his motives could not effect the merits of the prosecution one way or the other. But he was not known here—had not been called, nor his name mentioned, except in the opening of the counsel for the defense.

Mr. Arnold said that though Mr. Wilson had not been called, he had been subpenaed here, and was the person who was used as the instrument by which the prosecution was commenced. He thought it was competent for them to show by the witness that Wilson said he did not know much about Judge H., but that he made a remark to a jury on which he (Wilson) sat, that he would have revenge for; that he said he would follow him till he had satisfaction; that he would follow him through this impeachment, and when it was over would kick him.

Mr. Ryan said he could see that such evidence might be material if this Court had jurisdiction to bind Mr. Wilson over to keep the peace. But seriously, when they said to the Court that the Assembly were the prosecutors here, he thought the Court would consider that the Assembly did not appear here influenced by any improper motives on the part of Wm. K. Wilson or any one else. Another reason why the evidence should not be admitted, was that Mr. Wilson was not before the Court and had no means to protect himself, and he was just as much entitled to protection at the hands of the Court as any other person.

The vote was taken on the admissibility of the evidence, and all the Senators voted in the negative.

J. G. KNAPP called and sworn; was examined to Spec. 2. Art. 4.

Recollect being counsel for Hungerford in his case against Cushing and others, in the Dane Circuit Court; the first I knew exceptions were filed to Cushing's and Rantoul's answer; they were filed for insufficiency and impertinency; was present at the time of the argument of the exceptions; A. Hyatt Smith and Paris of Mineral Point were counsel for the defense; Collins was not employed at that time; dont know whether Collins or Geo. B. Smith were present at the argument of the exceptions; think the argument took two days; the exceptions for insufficiency reached to every portion of the bill, and brought its merits into controversy; the exceptions reached to it all and therefore its merits were all discussed; Mr. Smith said he would rather file a new answer than to answer the matters excepted to.

After the exceptions to Rantoul's answer were taken up Smith insisted that the exceptions were bad in point of form; I know that the Judge said he would hold them bad; but whether it was in point of form I cant say. He said he would rule against these exceptions, for it made no difference to the complainant whether Rantoul answered or not as he was a mere agent of Cushing; dont recollect that he said anything about the understrappers of Cushing.

Dont recollect that the Judge said Cushing had not answered the bill and could not; think if he had said so I should remember it; recollect the exceptions to the second answer of Cushing; they were not formally argued; they were submitted to the Judge at his room at the States; You and I, Collins and Mr. Smith were there; Mr Smith read to the Judge portions of the answer claiming that it covered the bill; it was in the room over the Stage office at the States; it occupied an evening and was all the argument of the exceptions that was had; Smith was here again before the final disposition of the case; he wanted to argue it; the Judge said he could spend no time to hear it argued as it was in a term of the Supreme Court; dont recollect that Smith said it would take a week to argue it; dont recollect that the Judge said he would not hear an argument of over an hour; I did not hear it; dont recollect that the Judge said it had been fully argued on the exceptions and was now reduced to a single point.

I heard Smith say he was willing to submit the case without argument, because he wanted to go to New York on his Railroad business.

Never heard Smith complain that he had not time to argue the case

Mr. Ryan asked if the witness heard Mr. Smith urge the postponement of the argument of the case until the fall term.

Witness.—I think very likely he did because he was in possession of the property and we wanted to get it.

Mr. Ryan.—But will you answer my question! I asked you for facts and not for logic. Did you hear Mr. Smith urge that the argument of the case should be put over till the fall term?

Witness.—I have no doubt that he urged that way and we urged the other.

Mr. Ryan.—But did you hear him urge it?

Witness.—Yes, Sir, I did.

Mr. Ryan.—Well, why did you not answer me as to the fact when I first asked you?

Witness.—Because we wanted to get possession of the property.

Mr. Ryan.—Is that the reason why you did not answer the question when I first asked it?

Witness.—Yes.

Mr. Ryan.—That is all then.

MATTHEW KEENAN called:

Have the papers in the case of Simpson vs. Howe; I received them from Mr. White the Dep. Clerk of the County who has gone home, on account of his father's being sick.

Mr. Ryan said they could introduce the papers; if Mr. Keenan said that he received them from Mr. White that was all that was necessary.

A. W. RANDALL called and sworn:

Reside in Waukesha co.; am an Att'y; recollect suit of Simpson vs. Howe; I tried it for the deft; it was on a note and account; there was an endorsement on the note which was erased, I think with a pen; it was a strong erasure.

Think it came on for trial at the Nov. Term, '50; the Judge told the Jury they must take the note as they found it; the Jury disallowed the endorsement; subsequently on motion and on affidavit of Mr. Byron, a new trial was granted on that account; we thought the Judge did not charge full enough, and that we were careless in not calling his attention to it; dont know the fact that Mrs. Howe called on the Judge about it.

Cross-examined:

(A paper was shown the witness among the papers in the case, which he said was the affidavit of Mr. Byron.)

After the granting of the new trial the case was settled; I cant state the day when the trial took place; it was in November 1850.

(Mr. Ryan said he found a motion for a new trial filed Nov. 19th, 1850.)

I think that is the motion we filed for a new trial; think the new trial was granted at the next March term.

(The affidavit of Mr. Byron was dated March 17th, '51.)

Cant say whether notice of the motion was given to Mr. Wright the pltf's att'y; know he had knowledge of the fact and spoke to the Court about it, at the time the new trial was granted.

The question came up as to whether the motion was filed in time, and I think my brother and Mr. Wright had some talk about it. Think the costs were taxed at Nov. term and judgment record filed.

Direct resumed.

I recollect now that the costs were taxed, record filed, and that Mr. Wright got out an execution soon after the verdict on the ground that the motion for a new trial was not filed in time; the next term when the motion was disposed of the question came up, and there was some discussion on it between my brother and Mr. Wright.

M. H. ORTON called and sworn:

(The witness then swore that the signatures of two mortgages handed him, were in the hand-writing of Mr. Taylor.)

Mr. Arnold then offered the mortgages in evidence.

Mr. Ryan asked the object,

Mr. Arnold said the object was to rebut the testimony of Taylor in saying that he was not indebted to Judge H. at the time of the sale of the judgment.

Mr. Arnold read the mortgages. One was a chattel mortgage on a piano for $300, and the other was a renewal of it.

Judge H. then said the Respondent was about to close his testimony. There was one witness who had telegraphed that he was on the way, and he wished to reserve the right to examine him when he arrived. There was also one fact which one of his counsel considered it important for him to prove, which was known only to one person, and that was his other counsel. Under the circumstances he felt it his duty to call him though he regretted the necessity of it, and it was very much against the wishes of the counsel himself.

JONATHAN E. ARNOLD called and sworn:

Was acquainted with the suit of Perry and Comstock; was counsel for the pl'ff; was not in Milwaukee when the decision was given; was in New York about that time; left Milwaukee on Monday; being about to start for the Baltimore Convention on Monday the 7th of June, and expecting to see Perry, the pl'ff, and being desirous of communicating to him the result, I called on Sunday afternoon at the Judge's room; found him with the papers of the case on his table before him, and he said that was the first opportunity he had to examine it; I told him that if he had made up his mind how he would decide it I would like to know, so that I could inform Perry; he said he had concluded to sustain the attachment.

I arrived in New York on the evening of Wednesday, the 9th; and the decision was on the morning of that day; it was on the afternoon of Sunday that I called on the Judge; Sanderson retained me in the suit; I received $1,000 fees; Sanderson paid a part of it; I did not know Perry at the time I began the suit; before the interview with the Judge, I had no information from Sanderson how the case would go; he was sometimes discouraged and sometimes confident, being an impulsive man. I never heard him make a bet that he would win the case.

In reply to Judge H.:

I dont know that Mr. Finch offered to bet a thousand dollars that the defendants would win.

Mr. Arnold then stated on behalf of the Respondent that the defense was closed with the exception of the witness Mr. Hart, the one alluded to by Judge H. He desired to know personally whether the prosecution would have any rebutting witnesses, as he wished to go home two or three days if he could.

Mr. Ryan said they could not tell with certainty now what witnesses they should want. That it was a matter of consultation with the Managers at noon, but they had not yet had time to determine. They would however, determine by to-morrow morning. They had sent despatches for witnesses to the Telegraph Office, but had since learned from some trouble with the wires they had not gone through. He could, however, say that there were some witnesses in town whom he thought they should examine, and he thought the others would perhaps be along, some of them by the time they had finished with these.

On motion of Judge Dunn the Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, it being an hour later than the usual time, in order to give the Managers time for consultation.

Great Fire in Baltimore.

Baltimore, June 28.

A terrible fire is raging here. The Point Market is destroyed, and the stores and dwellings on both sides. The fire is progressing westward with frightful rapidity, and defying the efforts of the firemen to stop its progress.

The fire first broke out in Straus' four-story grocery warehouse, on Broadway, which was completely destroyed; insured for $3,500, which will not cover the loss.—The fire then extended to the two stores below, and the hotel on the corner, all of which were destroyed. The market house then caught, and was completely destroyed. The fire then crossed the street, and, burning Straus' and other groceries, Mrs. Randall's house and several frames. The fire is now [ten o'clock,] still raging.

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

C. D. BOOTH, Local Editor.

SATURDAY::::::::::::::::::::::::::JULY 2.

Local, Miscellaneous, News, &c.

According to "immemorial usage," no paper will be issued from this office on Monday. Our "boys" are going to "celebrate."

FOURTH OF JULY.—This day will be appropriately celebrated in most of the villages throughout the State, while the people of this city—the metropolis of Wisconsin—do not feel interest enough in the day to prepare for any general celebration. We should be loth to admit that the people of this city looked upon the commemoration of our national birth-day with indifference, or that feelings of patriotism and the love of liberty did not burn as brightly as ever in their bosoms, or that they were wanting in respect or veneration for those illustrious patriots who periled their fortunes, their lives, and suffered the miseries of war and famine, to achieve the liberty which we now enjoy.

A Sunday School celebration will be held on the grounds of Mr. James H. Rogers, and the children are anticipating a happy day of it, and we apprehend they will not be disappointed. It is well—it is right that this day be celebrated in a becoming manner—not in drinking and carousing, but in pleasant and innocent amusements, that invigorate the body, cheer the heart, and make sunshiny life's pilgrimage to a happier land.

CORRECTION.—Our reporter writes, that in Mr. Arnold's opening speech for the defense in the impeachment case, as published in our paper of Wednesday last, the second sentence of the 17th paragraph should read, not as it is there printed, but as follows:

"The counsel for the State claimed that proof of the illegal act, would warrant the inference of corrupt motive, but the position of the defense was that the corrupt motive must be shown by other and satisfactory evidence."

MIL. & MISS. RAILROAD.—The receipts of this road for the month of June, just expired, were as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Passengers, - - - - - | $8,304 03 |
| Freight, - - - - - | 10,259 14 |
| Total - - - - - | 18,563 17 |

an average of $713,96 per day.

The total receipts for the month previous were $13,998,20.

The receipts for June, 1852, were $5,163,34, with 36 miles of road operated; now the length of the road is 70 miles, nearly twice the distance, while the receipts have more than trebled.

POLICE COURT.—Casper Arnold was tried yesterday afternoon for an assault and battery upon Catherine Ham, of Wauwatosa, and fined $7,50 and costs. The defendant, failing to pay the fine, was committed to jail.

HORSE STEALING.—Under-Sheriff Conover and an officer of Jefferson Co., arrested a man named J. Linden at Watertown yesterday, for stealing a horse. He immediately gave bail in the sum of $2,000 to appear and answer at the Circuit Court of Jefferson county.

SHINPLASTERS.—Messrs. Kneeland & Hull, being desirous of ridding the state of shinplasters, will purchase them at the usual rates, for the purpose of sending them home for redemption.

An iron foundry is now in operation in Delevan, Walworth county.

The Sheboygan Chronicle says the travel to that port is very large.

"Freeport Standard," is the name of a paper recently established at Freeport, Ill. It is a neat five-column sheet, devoted to the progress of humanity.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The summer term of this Court—Judge Miller presiding—will commence on Monday next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

FIRE.—A destructive fire occurred at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, on Sunday night last, consuming a hotel and the necessary buildings connected therewith, nine horses, and several shops.

There are 291 groggeries in Chicago—one to every 10 or 12 inhabitants!

QUEEN OF THE WEST.—The Buffalo Express, in noticing this new steamer, just completed in that city, says she is the joint property of the Central, Buffalo and New York City, New York and Erie, and Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Roads. Her dimensions are: Length, 330 feet; beam, 40½ feet; depth of hold, 14½ feet; tonnage, 1800. She will be commanded by Capt. D. H. McBride.

Joe Barker lectured again at Cleveland on Tuesday night, without molestation; and after he was through, his co-laborer, Mr. Sharp, attempted to speak on Catholicism, but a gang of rowdies, armed with clubs, interfered and prevented. Several of the audience were severely injured, but the police finally restored order and lodged six of the rioters in jail.

STORM.—On Wednesday last, a storm occurred at Rockford, Ill., doing considerable damage to buildings and fruit trees.

PROP. CHALLENGE.—The insurance—$24,000—on this vessel does not cover the damages it received by explosion, consequently the full amount of insurance will be recovered.

MINERAL LANDS.—The mineral lands of the Lake Superior region have risen in value rapidly of late, in consequence of an advance in the price of iron and copper.

R. R. V. U. R. R.—The question whether Janesville will take $150,000 of Stock in this Road, will be decided by a vote of the electors of that city on Tuesday, the 5th inst. A. H. SMITH issues an appeal to the people to support the measure.

DROWNED.—On Monday afternoon as a son of Mr. Fitzer of this village was bathing in the outlet of Delavan Lake, within the village, he got beyond his depth and was drowned. He was but about six years old.—Walworth Co. Journal.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.—The July No. of this bright 'star' in the galaxy of magazine literature, was received from the publishers some days since. It does not 'flag' in interest and has already taken a long stride in advance of its competitors, in the public estimation, for real merit and its purely American character.

The contents for this month are rich and varied, as usual, closing with a very sensible letter from V. LE LAY DE CHAUMONT, of Paris, in reference to the alleged connection of his grandfather with the "Bourbon" conspiracy. He puts an effectual quietus on that portion of Rev. Mr. Hansen's ingenious theory, and from a personal knowledge of the reputed unblemished character and high moral worth of Mr. LE RAY, among those with whom he was intimately connected during his residence in New York, we can corroborate many of his statements. However, the striking out of this incidental 'link,' may not destroy the whole 'chain' of the Rev. gentleman's argument, as he claims to have a stronger one already in the 'forge' at New Orleans, with which he will hasten to the 'breach.' True or false, no doubt the opening article on the "Bourbon" question contributed largely to the initial popularity of this magazine enterprise. It lent to it a charm and an impulse which hardly no other question could have done, and that impulse has been widening, until its circulation has already run up to 35,000 copies—a circulation unprecedented in the history of any enterprise of the kind, whether in England or America, and its march is "onward." Indeed, with such a competitor in its infancy, "HARPER," with its 100,000 copies, must look out for its laurels.

LOUISIANA.—Hon. John Moore (Whig) is nominated for re-election to Congress.

Wm. Mitchell, convicted in New York of shooting, with intent to kill Miss Magdalene Thompson, because she refused to marry him, has been sentenced to the State prison for five years.

ANOTHER MARIA MONK.—A female calling herself Saint Agnes, is lecturing in Newark, N. J., on the interior life of convents, in which she claims to have passed twenty years.

The Farcical Shading into the Tragical.

A lunatic Irishman on the plank Road, near Sheboygan Falls, assaulted an equestrian, demanding his horse in the name of the President.

The horseman, being a subject of, Queen Victoria and law abiding at that, dismounted and yielded to the demand.

Rattlepate mounted and disappeared.—The report of these proceedings brought other parties into the quarrel, the livery man and a deputy sheriff. These had been but a short time on the look out before the madman was seen coming towards them like the wind.

They, supposing the man to be responsible for his act, siezed him and meeting frantic resistance, beat him in a shocking manner. The lunatic is in jail under medical treatment.—Sheboygan Chron.

EXTRAORDINARY BIRTH.—A woman, residing in this village was safely delivered of two girls and one boy, still born, on Monday the 27th inst.—Jeff Co. Jeff.

We are informed by Mr. Strong that the Directors of the M. Pt. R. R. Co. have effected an arrangement by which the contract of Messrs. Chamberlain and Cook is surrendered up, and a new contract entered into for the construction of the road bed, with other parties, at a much reduced price. The new contractors are Messrs. A. Gates and Co. for the Southern half of the road, and John M. Keep Esq., for the Northern half.—Mineral Pt. Trib.

HARBOR.—The work of dredging is steadily progressing; the piers are also being levelled up, and the cribs filled with stone.—All that has been done thus far on the harbor this season, has been at the expense of the city:

The government appropriation of $10,000 made by Congress a year ago, is shamefully withheld from being applied to its legitimate object by the management of those who have it in control.—Kenosha Tel.

LAKE SHORE RAILROAD.—A company of surveyors are now engaged in resurveying the Lake Shore road through this city with a view to its final location.—Ib.

Mr. Harmon Marsh, of the town of Somers, in this county, sheared from one French buck 10 lbs. and 7 oz., clean wool; from one Spanish buck 9 lbs; from one French ewe 8 lbs; from one yearling buck 6 lbs. A flock of ewes, 300 in number, averaged 3 lbs, 8 oz each.

The entire flock of Mr. Marsh has been purchased by Hon. C. Durkee, who intends to take them to his farm in Dane county.—Ib.

Professor Alex. C. Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound, for beautifying, improving and preserving the hair, curing cuts, bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism, and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement; but as the thousands who purchase, use, and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons.
Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 940,000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $190,000.
This plain, unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than anything its inventor could say. If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy, for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases &c.—it would not, of course, be so universally in demand. The wealthy portion of the public would buy it any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.
Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents,) at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot, 137 Broadway, and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c.
For sale in this city by LAKE & HOPKINS and S. JOHNSON, Jr., Druggists. my11d6m

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!
A Cripple sets aside his Crutches after 10 years Suffering.
Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, Dated August 20th, 1852.
To Professor HOLLOWAY,
DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor.
(Signed) J. THOMPSON.
A most Extraordinary Cure of a Dreadful Skin Disease, when all Medical aid had failed.
To Professor HOLLOWAY,
SIR—Some time since one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless.—At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.
I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.
(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.
Certain Remedy for Scorbutic Humours. An astonishing Cure of an old Lady 70 years of age of a Bad Leg.
Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker & Co., Chemists, Bath.
To Professor HOLLOWAY,
DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighborhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the village of Preston, about five miles from this city. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.
A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all others means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise.
We remain, Dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,
April 6th, 1852. (Signed) WALKER & CO.
The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
